

Healionics to Present at the Medical Technology Industry's Leading Conference – AdvaMed 2009 in Washington D.C.

Redmond, WA (September 30, 2009)—CEO Michel Alvarez will be presenting Healionics at AdvaMed 2009, which brings together innovative medical technology companies, partners and investors. Healionics has been invited to present on Oct. 12, 2009 at the conference held in Washington D.C.

The AdvaMed 2009 conference provides medtech companies from around the world the opportunity to present at a leading international medical technology conference designed by industry, for industry.

As a member of AdvaMed, Healionics is part of a highly respected organization that “advocates for a legal, regulatory and economic climate that advances global health care by assuring patients can have access to the benefits of medical technology.” AdvaMed member companies produce 90 percent of the health care technology purchased annually in the United States and more than 50 percent purchased annually around the world.

“We are honored to be selected to present Healionics and our STAR® biomaterial technology platform at AdvaMed 2009. AdvaMed is a well-respected trade association that was recommended to us by many of my peers and I am excited to share the Healionics story with industry leaders,” says Michel Alvarez, CEO of Healionics Corporation.
